

Greetings Pathways,

The final session of the Racism and Social Injustice Learning Series: "Wrap-Up" is scheduled for Thursday, October 29th. Cindy Greer, Arizona/Nevada/Oregon State Director, Dustin Keller, Tennessee State Director and Mary Mims, Indiana State Director will serve as presenters. Our expert panelists will discuss what we have learned as an organization and will address open questions.

If you have a question that you would like to share with our presenters prior to the session, please email Questions: Series Wrap-Up.

Wrap-Up

Pathways Learning Series on
Racism and Social Injustice

Registration Details: "Wrap Up":

October 29th, 12pm EST/11am CST/9am
PST Click to Register

Please note: registration will close 2hrs prior to the webinar.

Areas Covered

What Have We Learned?

We bring together many people with a wide range of perspectives. We'll provide key insights from previous webinars and discuss areas of opportunity.

What Have We Heard?

Everyone has a unique story and together we can inspire change. We'll answer a few employee feedback questions.

Key Takeaways

People are important in inspiring people, your action matters. How do we continue the conversation? What to do now to take action.

Previous session recordings are available as part of our on-demand library:

- Microaggressions and Bias Click to Enroll
- Supporting Clients Click to Enroll
- Leading Your Teams (Supervisors Only) Click to Enroll
- Supporting Changes Click to Enroll
- Understanding Collective Trauma Click to Enroll
- Navigating Conversations Click to Enroll
- Racism and Social Injustice Introductory Webinar Click to Enroll

A few employee testimonials:

"Really enjoyed the personal stories, moving and touching."

"I want to thank the presenters for sharing their stories and presenting the information - info was easily understood and presented in digestible chunks. I am extremely thankful that pathways has chosen to deliver training related to social injustice of any kind and happy to work for such an inclusive company - way to go Pathways!"

"THIS is why I love Pathways, for truly embracing our mission and values - not just for the people we serve, but our own employees as well. I am so proud of the presenters for sharing their stories and educating us on how we can be allies and support our communities in all their diversity.

"Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Visibility and conversation are so important, and can save those struggling with how they identify. Thank you!"